

BTEC Diploma Vocational Studies - Hospitality and Travel and Tourism Level 1

In a nutshell

Our Vocational Studies courses are designed to introduce you to the area of study that interests you and to help you develop wider learning skills.

This course is for you if...

- ... You're unsure about what to do or what to specialise in
- ... You want to try more than one vocational area
- ... You want to gain a great insight into college life

What will I be doing?

This course will provide you with a range of progression opportunities, including further learning at the college on one of our next level courses, an apprenticeship or employment!

COURSE INFORMATION LEAFLET

You'll get the opportunity to try more than one vocational area and develop practical, transferable skills by completing tasks that focus on demonstrating what you can do and what you have learned. You'll be assessed through assignments and practical assessments.

The core units are the same across all our Vocational Studies courses, which helps you develop your skills within your chosen area. If you need to change to a different course, you can transfer the units studied on this course to your next one, if needed.

The core units you'll follow include units such as:

- Being organised
- Developing a progression plan
- Working with others
- Researching a topic

The Hospitality and Travel and Tourism units may include:

- Preparing and Cooking Food
- Serving Food and Drink
- Exploring Local Visitor Attractions
- Exploring Travel and Tourism in the UK
- Delivering Customer Service in Hospitality and Tourism
- Planning and Navigating a Route
- Branding a Product

You'll be assessed through assignments, tasks and practical assessments and you'll achieve qualifications in:

BTEC Level 1 Diploma in Vocational Studies

Skills Activities

Maths and English (if you haven't achieved a Grade C or above at GCSE level)

Other relevant qualifications to enhance your skill set

What is expected of me?

There are no formal requirements. However, an interest in learning about the different vocational areas is necessary.
