

Foundation Degree Performing Arts

In a nutshell

This course provides you with an opportunity to explore drama, dance and music from an inter-disciplinary perspective, whilst developing your creative processes and practices.

This course is for you if...

- ... You want to develop your performing skills
- ... You want to further your study or get a job in the field
- ... You want a course to give you both understanding and experience

What will I be doing?

You'll make use of technology in performance, gaining an understanding of digital projection, computer composition, and sound design. With strong links to employers in the creative industries, this course aims to provide you with both understanding and experience of the field of performing arts. At the end of the course you could go on to further study or move directly into a job in which you can use your performance and creative skills.

COURSE INFORMATION LEAFLET

You'll have the opportunity to develop skills in the creation of performance, and explore the relationship between dance, drama and music in such forms as physical theatre and music theatre. You'll create pre-professional projects or undertake work placements, you'll have the opportunity to develop your voice performance and complete appropriate research and study skills for the performing arts.

You'll experience a range of different approaches to study in the performing arts, including discussion, rehearsal, workshops and devising performance. You'll be introduced to new skills relating to technology and performance, such as lighting and computer-based sound recording and design. You'll also need to be able to manage projects and negotiate with partners and other agencies.

You'll be assessed via coursework, performance and online submissions and you'll achieve a Foundation Degree in Performing Arts.

What is expected of me?

To enrol, you'll need 3 GCSEs at Grade C or above, to include Maths and English (or equivalent), plus:

48 UCAS points - UCAS tariff calculator

<https://www.ucas.com/ucas/tariff-calculator>

Access to HE where you have achieved a Pass Diploma with 45 Passes

Please note that if you do not meet the grade criteria, then age and experience may be able to be taken into consideration.

Full commitment to attendance is required, as well as respect for others, enthusiasm for the subject, self-motivation, creative ability and a desire to succeed.

What comes next?

There are a range of careers available to you following completion of the Foundation Degree in Performing Arts. With further study, you could consider drama in education, rehabilitation or therapy.

Apply online at www.coleggwent.ac.uk

studentrecruitment@coleggwent.ac.uk | 01495 333777 (Croesawn alwadau yn Gymraeg)

COURSE INFORMATION LEAFLET

You could also go on to study the final year of BA (Hons) Theatre and Drama, or BA (Hons) Performing Arts.

Additional information

Applicants may be asked to attend an interview, take part in a workshop session, or present a portfolio of work as part of the selection process.

This course is franchised by the University of South Wales.

The UCAS code is: W303

The institution code: W01

The campus code: G

You can apply directly to the college or via UCAS for this course.

Apply online at www.coleggwent.ac.uk

studentrecruitment@coleggwent.ac.uk | 01495 333777 (Croesawn alwadau yn Gymraeg)

