

AIM Certificate Counselling Skills Level 2

In a nutshell

If you have a caring nature and like the idea of counselling, this is the ideal course to learn and practise a range of skills as the first step towards becoming a counselling practitioner.

This course is for you if...

... Anyone who wants to develop counselling skills as a change in career, return to work or as a volunteer.

What will I be doing?

The AIM Level 2 Certificate in Counselling Skills covers a wide range of counselling skills, and is assessed through a mixture of involvement in practical work, assessed use of skills, achievement of specified learning outcomes through written journals and a final 1-hour written examination.

On successful completion of the course, you could progress to the AIM Certificate in

COURSE INFORMATION LEAFLET

Counselling Level 3.

What is expected of me?

Assessment:

Involvement in practical work

Assessed use of skills

Achievement of specified learning outcomes through written journals

Final written examination (1 hour)

What comes next?

Successful candidates will be able to progress to AIM Certificate in Counselling Level 3.

Additional information

This course will run subject to minimum student numbers.

THE COURSE WILL BE DELIVERED AS A BLENDED APPROACH OF FACE TO FACE AND REMOTE DELIVERY - WHICH COULD BE MOVED TO FULLY REMOTE IF ANY COVID RESTRICTIONS ARE STILL IN PLACE.

All participants will need to have good internet connection and a laptop or PC with audio and webcam function.

Apply online at www.coleggwent.ac.uk

studentrecruitment@colegwent.ac.uk | 01495 333777 (Croesawn alwadau yn Gymraeg)

