

UAL Diploma in Performing and Production Arts (Musical Theatre) Level 3

In a nutshell

This is a highly practical course, led by professionally trained lecturers and associate teachers aimed at developing skills required to become a triple threat performer. You will complete the course with a repertoire of application material suitable for HE or conservatoire study, as well as relevant academic and research skills at a level 3 standard. Skills will be developed in each of the disciplines with targeted work in the areas you are most in need of development.

As a course team we are committed to each learner and their progression to a HE study of their choice and preparing them to navigate this highly competitive industry. Our programme of extra curricular engagements as well as trips overseas and throughout the UK is unrivalled, with a vibrant and diverse programme in place already for the next academic year. We pride ourselves on our links with conservatoire teaching teams from across the UK, and these industry specialists are welcomed at points across the year to mentor our learners in their audition practice and preparation.
