

UAL Diploma in Art and Design Level 3

In a nutshell

Approved by the University of the Arts London (UAL), this new and innovative 1-year course helps you discover what interests you most in art and design and develops some of the essential skills that underpin creative disciplines. It will encourage you to communicate visually, think conceptually and develop problem solving and practical techniques.

This course is for you if...

- ...you want to explore different areas of art and design
- ...you want to stretch your ability to think conceptually and communicate visually
- ...you want a career in creative industries such as fashion, fine art, design or photography

What will I be doing?

The course covers creative specialisms with exciting projects designed to reflect industry

COURSE INFORMATION LEAFLET

experience. You'll have access to professionally-equipped art and design workshops and studios and will learn through experimentation, using a broad range of 2D, 3D and digital processes. Projects will help you gain a contextual understanding of art and design, supporting you to make and articulate your personal journey and interpretations. Your tutors will have extensive skills, knowledge and experience of industrial practice and education within the creative arts and, throughout the year, you'll be encouraged to develop personal affinities and interests. In Term 3, you'll undertake a self-initiated project to identify a more specialist area of interest, such as painting and drawing, fashion and textiles, 3D design, photography and digital design. You'll be assessed on your coursework, eventually achieving Level 3 Art and Design, as well as appropriate supporting qualifications to broaden your skill set, s kills activities and English and Maths.

What is expected of me?

You'll need a minimum of 5 GCSEs at Grade C or above, to include Art and either Maths/Maths Numeracy or English/Welsh First Language, or appropriate Level 2 Diploma qualification at Merit grade with GCSEs to include either Maths/Maths Numeracy or English/Welsh First Language at Grade C or above. We'll also expect you to be committed to full attendance, have an enthusiasm for the subject, self-motivation, creative ability and a desire to succeed.

What comes next?

On completing this one year diploma, you can progress onto the second year where you can focus on a specialism of your choice, as well as working across media and workshops to help you choose your creative career. On completing year two, you'll be able to progress to Higher Education, including our range of courses at Foundation Degree and HND (Higher National Diploma) level. We can also guide you through the UCAS application process to apply for a wide range of degree programmes in the creative arts.

Additional information

If you'd like to experience our creative workshops and visit our well-equipped creative environment before applying for the course, you're invited to any of our open evenings and taster sessions (see website for current dates).