

ILM Award in Leadership and Team Skills Level 2

In a nutshell

This course is designed to develop core leadership skills for those already in, or looking to take on, a leadership role. It's delivered by experienced tutors who have themselves held management positions, and training is practical, participative and linked back to the workplace.

This course is for...

- ...practicing team and cell leaders
- ...members of self-managed teams
- ...new or aspiring team leaders

Course content

This course gives learners the foundations for becoming more effective and confident in their leadership role. It covers two units from the Level 2 qualification:

COURSE INFORMATION LEAFLET

Understanding effective working teams – to develop skills in making sure teams work effectively.

Planning and monitoring work – to develop understanding and ability to plan and monitor the work of the team effectively and efficiently.

Learners will also have trainer-led workshops for each unit and will produce a written assignment.

Entry Requirements

There are no formal entry requirements for this course.

Additional information

Once learners have successfully completed the assessments they'll be awarded an Institute of Leadership & Management (ILM) Level 2 Award in Leadership & Team Skills.

They can progress to the ILM Level 2 Certificate in Leadership & Team Skills by adding further units to the ones already achieved, or may want to undertake the ILM Level 2 (NVQ) Diploma in Team Leading or progress to the ILM Level 3 Award in Leadership & Management.