

City & Guilds Award in the Internal Quality Assurance of Assessment Processes and Practice Level 4

In a nutshell

If you have staff who are responsible for maintaining the quality of assessment in your organisation or assessment centre, this qualification is for them. They'll need the support of an additional IQA person in your organisation to mentor them, and should already have an assessor qualification (e.g. A1/2, D32/33, TAQA).

This course is for...

...anyone in a quality assurance role, supporting at least two assessors.

Course content

On the course learners will study internal verification planning, sampling strategies, standardisation techniques and undertaking quality assurance processes. Working on a one-to-one basis with experienced professionals, they'll be able to develop their own internal quality assurance processes to suit your business.
