

EAL Progression in Electrical Installation Level 2

In a nutshell

The Progression in Electrical course gives you a broad but in-depth insight into the work and skills of an electrician. This course will prepare you for a career as an Electrician in the construction industry.

This course is for...

- ... You are interested in an apprenticeship or career as an electrical installer
- ... You have already achieved the Level 2 (Foundation) Diploma electrical
- ... You want both practical and theoretical knowledge

Course content

The Progression in electrical Studies course offers you the chance to develop your skills and knowledge to a high standard recognised by the industry.

COURSE INFORMATION LEAFLET

You'll learn how to install and test a range of electrical circuits in our well-equipped workshops.

You'll cover a range of units during the course, including:

Performing Electrical Installation

Understand How to Install Enclosures for Electrical Cables, Conductors and Wiring Systems

Understand How to Install and Connect Electrical Cables, Conductors, Wiring Systems and Equipment

Understand How to Inspect and Test De-Energised Electrical Circuits

Understand Intermediate Electrical Science and Principles

The course is delivered by both practical sessions in excellent workshop facilities and theory lessons to underpin the knowledge learnt in the practical sessions.

You'll be assessed through practical projects, written and online tests.

Entry Requirements

To enter the course, you will need a Level 2 (Foundation) Diploma in Electrical and

either GCSE Maths/Maths Numeracy or English/Welsh First Language Grade C or above

Additional information

Learners on this course normally progress into an Apprenticeship or Employment in Electrical Installations.

Apply online at www.coleggwent.ac.uk

studentrecruitment@coleggwent.ac.uk | 01495 333777 (Croesawn alwadau yn Gymraeg)

